Re: United States v. Stuart Campbell
07 Cr. 831 (KMK)

Dear Judge Karas:

On December 13, 2007, at my request and without opposition from the Government, this Court stayed the execution of the home confinement component of Mr. Campbell's sentence until January 15, 2008, and authorized Mr. Campbell to travel to the Dominican Republic during the interim in order to visit family there.

With the consent of the Government, I respectfully request that the Court grant a further stay of the home confinement until January 28, 2008, and authorize Mr. Campbell to travel between January 22 and 26, 2008.

The reason for this request is that airline travel earlier in January has proved to be prohibitively expensive for Mr. Campbell, who has learned that traveling later in the month will save him hundreds of dollars in airfare.

As indicated, I discussed this request with Assistant United States Attorney Nola Heller, who indicated that the Government does not object.

Thank you for your consideration.
